

FOOD SAFETY AND HYGIENIC REQUIREMENTS

For contractors, service providers and other business partners

Our business partners acknowledge the following requirements:

General requirements

- A person suffering from an infectious disease may not enter the Company's premises
- Heavily soiled work clothes must be immediately changed
- If you notice the presence of pests (insects, rodents), please notify your contact person
- Smoking and eating is only allowed in designated areas
- Only the designated route can be used for pedestrian traffic, it is not allowed to pass through the production areas, including the upper corridor at packaging hall.
- The lids of waste storage containers must be kept closed

Requirements at all production areas (Brewhouse, Fermentation, Filtration, Packaging lines, Utility department, Laboratories)

- The employee working in the production area must have a valid medical certificate. Dreher employees are entitled to check them on a random basis.
- Please keep these rules when entering the production areas:
 - Clean work clothes or clean white coat have to be wear.
 - Safety shoes have to be wear.
 - You must change clothes or wear white coat in the PET clean room.
 - Shorts and skirts are not allowed.
 - Long hair must be tied back.
 - Keep your hands clean (with short and clean nails).
 - You must wash your hand before working with food, after using toilet, after eating and smoking.
 - Wounds on the hands must be covered with waterproof, coloured plasters.
 - You are not allowed to wear jewelry, wrist watches, piercing in the packaging areas.
 - Chewing is not allowed in the production areas.
- Personal belongings including food and drink are not allowed to bring to production areas.
- It is not allowed to eat and drink in production areas.
- Only windows with insect nets can be open during production. Other windows and doors must be kept closed.

Requirements during working in production areas

- All the tools and devices used for working must be clean.
- All the fallen materials have to be collected immediately in order to avoid risk of foreign material contamination.